

Monkey's Mishap

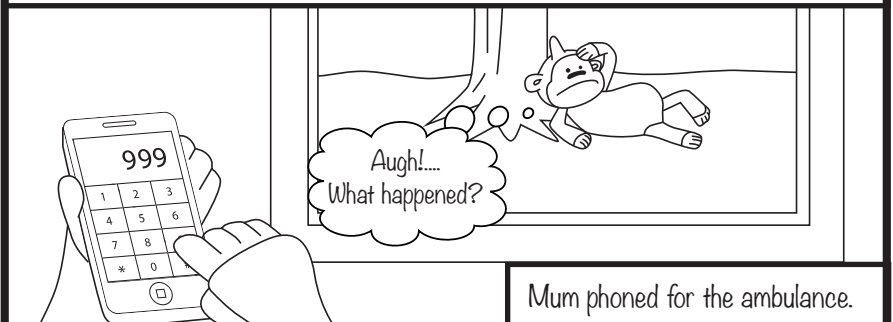

I love climbing trees! It's what monkeys love best! One day, I was climbing a tree in the back garden as usual, when all of a sudden, I had an accident!

One of the branches gave way, and I fell from a great height! I bumped my head and landed on my arm.

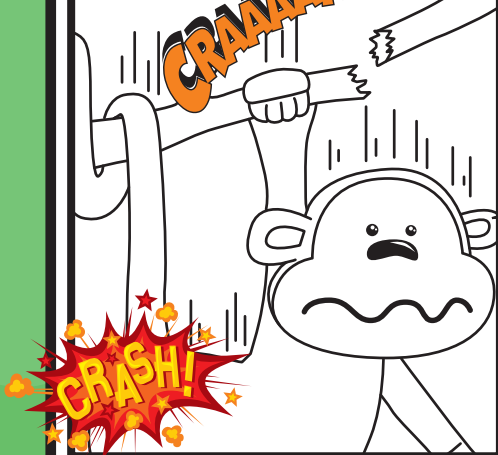

My arm really hurt! My mum saw me from the window and ran to help. Mum thought I had broken my arm and needed to go to the Emergency Department.

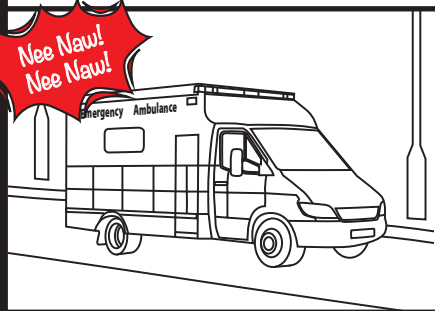

Mum phoned for the ambulance.

CRAAAAAAACK

The ambulance arrived really quickly! You hear the sirens coming up the road.

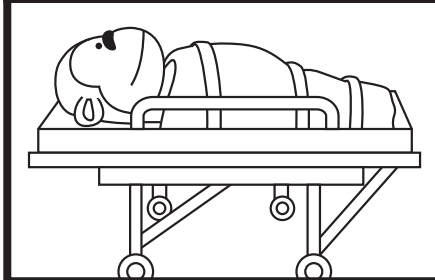

The paramedics were very kind. They bandaged my leg to stop the bleeding and put a cold pack on my head.

They carefully put a splint on my arm, then a sling around it to protect it before I got to the hospital.

The paramedics gently lifted me onto a stretcher and wrapped me up with blankets to keep me warm.

Into the back of the ambulance I went, and off to the hospital we sped!
